Introduction. The primary laws of the European Union (EU) are contained in the treaties agreed between member states. These treaties set out how the EU is structured and governed.
They also give powers to EU institutions to make and or primacy, describes the relationship between EU law and national law. It says that EU law should prevail if it conflicts with national law. This ensures that EU rules are applied uniformly throughout the Union. If national laws could contradict the EU treaties or laws passed by the EU institutions, there wouldn't be this single set of rules in all member countries.
